I Am God

John C. Robinson

Upon turning 75, I felt the compelling need to spend time in solitude, to live more fully the mystical consciousness I have been writing about for 25 years. As the experience deepened, I began writing mystical poetry in the tradition of Hafez, Rumi, Kabir and Gibran. Hundreds of verses poured forth, an amazing surprise. I had found a new voice, poetry became a new spiritual practice, and wisdom and revelation now flow from the One.

How & What to Pursue in Life

Yoon-Jeong Kim

"Why do I live as a small human being in this huge universe?" The answer to this question is simple and clear. "It is to feel genuine happiness."

Then, another question arises. "How and what makes one happy?" And this question cannot be answered right away. Feeling genuine happiness is something that can't be achieved easily in this world, where many complicated circumstances are intertwined.

In order to feel genuine happiness, one must understand oneself, know about the world and see through the universe. You are the one who feels happiness, you can't be happy simply by yourself, and happiness is the universe's response to your choices.

Elijah the Bodhisattva

Malcolm David Brown

This is an interspiritual commentary – largely though not exclusively Buddhist-inspired – on the life of Elijah as recounted in the Bible. It treats the externals of his life as metaphors for internal mind-states, his story as a labyrinth-like journey toward enlightenment, an unfolding realization of the non-duality of himself and God.

Clearing a Way

Trevor Griffiths

How to make better life-enhancing choices when environments crumble and population shifts disrupt our ways of living? Dr Griffiths takes a deep look at how our brains trick us into seeing the surface of things so that we lose sight of the deep relatedness on which our survival as groups will increasingly depend. Many astonishing insights follow. Body-mind dualism dissolves, as the ecological person moves with others in a renewed group-approach to thriving.

Everything Makes Sense Tim Garvin

Science and religion study the same phenomenon - the cosmos itself - but an impenetrable barrier seems to separate them. Garvin removes that barrier and offers a resonant handshake. Instead of sitting across from each other in opposition, scientists and seekers can sit at a table made round by wonder. As Everything Makes Sense dives into the nature of knowing and existence, it reveals a mutuality in humankind unimagined by theology or biology, a mutuality in the nature of being itself.

Developing Your Supernatural Awareness

Fredrick Woodard

The challenges of examining the subjective experience of supernatural events prompted me to write this book. I talk about my earliest experiences with hypnosis, the study of consciousness, and how I evolved as a professional, as well as how I developed deeper connections to my heritage. I discuss how I improved my understanding of supernatural awareness and forged stronger connections with the universe — a universe alive with invisible beings, energies, and information that can interact with us.

Sacred Bones, Magic Bones

Ness Bosch

Bones, together with the elements of nature, are the basis of the spirituality of humanity. The cult of bones and the cult of the ancestors are very old, dating back to prehistoric times. ## Westerly Wind Brings Witches, A

Sally Walker

Honourable Mention runner up in A Woman's Write 2021 novel writing competition:

'I'm enchanted by Walker's fresh - yet dry! - sense of humour and I know readers will be also. It's rare to find a writer so adept at making fun and pun of even the simplest or most ponderous material, while balancing it with intelligent observations and diligent historical delving. Within a framework of irony and exaggeration and vibrant settings, Walker places a credible, likable central character - Moira, who becomes a witch. A strong story with an enthralling premise that will attract female readers especially!' Barbara Bamberger Scott, Editor, A Woman's Write

Moon Books; 2024-03-29; Occult & Supernatural/Historical/Magical Realism; Pb-9781803414584, $18.95/£16.99, 336pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781803414591, $9.99/£8.99.

People of the Outside

Lee Morgan

The People of the Outside is a different sort of history, some of the deepest buried sediment to be found in a cave and sifted for traces of the past. It is a history of the dust. It pulls apart binaries and invites us to use our hybrid brains - every tool, from science to intuition - to untangle the elf-locks that endure as a clever-cord, an elongated witch's ball, one that reaches all the way back to our own almost extinct ancestors.

'One of the greatest and most artful voices of contemporary Craft.' Fio Gede Parma, initiate, mentor, cunning person, and author

Moon Books; 2024-05-31; Paganism & Neo-Paganism/Witchcraft/Magick Studies; Pb-9781803415215, $14.95/£12.99, 224pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781803415390, $7.99/£6.99.

Building of the Great Pyramid, The Nicholas Hagger

As a teenager, Hagger was fascinated by the Great Pyramid, and in 1963 he wrote The Riddle of the Great Pyramid as a parable for our time.

Here is a book that reflects on why the Great Pyramid was built - a solution is offered - with up-to-date knowledge of the construction methods of 2600BC, and sees it as typical of all huge organisations within the world of work.

James Tartaglia

Inner Space Philosophy

Why the Next Stage of Human Development Should Be Philosophical, Explained Radically (Suitable for Wolves)

Inner Space Philosophy James Tartaglia

Inner Space Philosophy is both a work of original philosophy and an entertainment package, since Tartaglia believes imaginative presentation to be a crucial feature of our philosophical traditions, one which has been neglected to our detriment in the drive to model philosophy on science. Arguing for the utmost importance of philosophy to the human future, such that we must eventually become 'a philosophical people', Tartaglia discusses topics such as the meaning of life, idealism, materialism, determinism, video games and existential threats.

'An extraordinarily original, profound, witty meditation on philosophy...' Raymond Tallis

Emotional Capitalism Peter Wing-Kai Lok

As today's emotional capitalism increasingly carries out its core operation of regulating the psycho-energy of individuals, the need to analyse a variety of methods for emotional production becomes important. By bringing together the works of Byung-Chul Han, Bernard Stiegler, Emmanuel Levinas, and Judith Butler, this bold analysis offers a fresh perspective on the operation of emotional capitalism today, with various possibilities for evolving a sensitivity to social injustice and the suffering of others through an ethical, affective, and bodily inter-subjective connection.

I Am Taurus Stephen Palmer

The constellation we know as Taurus goes all the way back to cave paintings of aurochs at Lascaux. This is not just a history of the bull but also an attempt to see ourselves through the eyes of the bull, illustrating our pre-literate use of myth, how the advent of writing and the urban revolution changed our view of ourselves, and how even the most modern of rituals - bullfighting in Spain - is a variation on the ancient sacrifice of the sacred bull.

Irreducible

Federico Faggin

With the knowledge and experience of a lifetime in cutting-edge fields, Federico now turns his attention to consciousness and the nature of reality, sharing with us his profound insights on the classical and quantum worlds, artificial intelligence, life and the human mind. In this book, he elaborates on an idealist model of reality, produced after years of careful thought and direct experience, according to which nature's most fundamental level is that of consciousness as a quantum phenomenon, while the classical physical world consists merely of evocative symbols of a deeper reality.

'A true treasure... a must-read.' Bernado Kastrup

Breaking Through the Silicon Ceiling

Gerald L. Kimber White & Christine King

Breaking Through the Silicon Ceiling takes the reader on the amazing journey of Chris King's life and her rise from being a poor, uneducated, 20-year-old single mom to being the world's first female CEO of a semiconductor company. In a story full of twists and turns, the reader is carried through emotional highs and lows, and given the gift of learning what Chris had to learn through trial and error - that success in business is not dictated by your demographic or the types of challenges that life might throw at you. The seeds of success are within you.

'Such an inspiring story.' Lisa Su, CEO of leading semiconductor company, AMD

Making a Massacre

Tom Reilly

For nearly 400 years, it has been widely accepted that Oliver Cromwell committed civilian atrocities at Drogheda and Wexford in 1649, thus adversely infecting Anglo-Irish relations for that entire period. This is an accurate (and sideways) account of one man's lone battle to overturn this miscarriage of historical justice - two middle fingers to mainstream academia. Most significantly, this is the story of the pushback the author has encountered from academics, in general, who have closed ranks in their reluctance to embrace incontrovertible facts.

'This has to be the best thing I've ever read in my life .' The Outlaw MJ Podcast

Liberalis Books; 2024-06-28; Ireland/Social History/Historiography; Pb-9781803415031, $12.95/£10.99, 176pp, 8.5x5.5inches / 216x140mm, Ebk-9781803415420, $10.99/£8.99.

Bias Was a Genius

Tim Hardy-Lenik

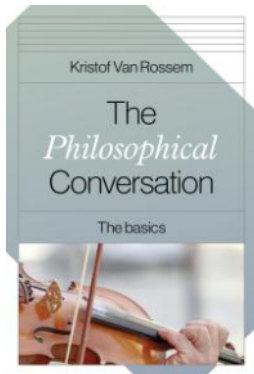

So you get the Why? of diversity, equity and inclusion - you have even started to do the How? - but change isn't sticking, and your business is a fair-weather supporter of the work. Bias Was a Genius is a handbook for building sustainable, commercially relevant DEI theory to incorporate into your own DEI strategy and, as practitioners, to make change through self-reflection.

Divided into three sections, Bias Was a Genius represents the three key Greek Delphic tenets written by Bias of Priene: Know Thyself, Certainty Brings Trouble, and Nothing to Excess.

China the Super Predator

Pierre-Antoine Donnet

China is facing tremendous economic, social and political challenges, as well as having become a predominant contributor to climate change. It has also become a predator against the Uyghurs, the Tibetans, and the Mongols, and taken over Hong Kong, silencing any forms of dissent. It increasingly appears that one of the Communist regime's main goals is to control the entire world, but this global ambition now faces mounting geopolitical difficulties.

Scene Change

Alan Harrison

Nonprofit arts organizations have to place nonprofit ahead of arts in order to thrive in these pre-post-pandemic days. Most currently don't. In his brilliantly unpretentious, snarky, and hilarious style, Alan Harrison pulls no punches.
